Sponsoring the climbing future in Thailand.

Let's create something great together!

Here is what you can do:

Help us support a community-based organization dedicated to rock climbing, outdoor activities, and sustainable development in Thailand!

Get involved in social development in an international context combined with an extraordinary climbing adventure!

Bring your gear along the trip and help drill some awesome lines!

Got a company?

Extend your brand throughout the Southeast Asian climbing community!

Invest in local communities in the Khon Kaen climbing area to help transform the region into a thriving but sustainable ecotourism spot!

Help empower the people of Khon Kaen to build their own future – with your support we will build an eco-friendly world class climbing destination in Thailand!

Your support, no matter how small, is deeply appreciated!

1. Financial Support

Our financial backing is crucial. As a non-profit association, we're largely dependent on donations and membership contributions.

These funds help us procure necessary equipment locally, bolstering the local economy.

For specialized equipment that is hard to source in Thailand, we require material donations.
